Dawdy Haus is Dutch for “Grandparents House”. Typically, this smaller home is built beside the main house on an Amish family farm and used as the eldest generation’s residence. This traditional Dawdy Haus has been converted to offer another lodging option ideal for family reunions or small groups.

A short walking distance from the Inn, there are six standard rooms; five with one queen bed and one with two queen beds. Each guest room offers:

- Full bath
- Television
- Hair dryer
- Coffee maker
- Access to the convenient kitchenette and cozy common area

Guests at the Dawdy Haus have access to the common areas at the Essenhaus Inn and Conference Center.
